PERSONAL INFORMATION

ABOUT ME

Susan Straub-Martin, a visionary children's book writer and illustrator, taps into this magical world with her brush and pen. Her journey began not in a bustling city studio but amidst the whispering forests and serene lakes, where nature's symphony composed the soundtrack of her childhood.

Susan's art reflects her adventures through the emerald woods and over the rolling meadows, where every leaf and pebble told a story. Her illustrations are more than just drawings; they are windows into fantastical worlds where animals speak, stars dance, and dreams are as tangible as the paper they are painted on.

Most recently Susan became a #1 Best selling author on Amazon in three categories for her participation in the Anthology of Women's Stories of Courage.
